It is our most rustic (and remote) of rooms, situated down on the pasture, about 50m from the facilities. It has no electricity, but a small solar-panel provides lighting at night. This room is made for the adventurous, and as we keep developing our farm, so we plan to add more creature comforts as time goes by. Don't forget your torch!	9km	Ceres	Facilities THE GALLEY – self-catering facilities The galley is equipped with a fridge, kettle, microwave and toaster. There is also a gas/electric stove-top. There are some pots, pans and a few pyrex dishes, as well as cutlery and crockery. There is stock of various non-perishables which can be used on an honesty-purchase basis. THE LAPA There is an outside bar with a wood stove, in the lapa, and a communal braai area that can be used. If you plan to enjoy your evening cooking saffa style (i.e. outdoors), we have bags of wood for sale, and will accommodate you as best we can. ABLUTIONS There are outside gas showers and a wash basin. Scrubbing with a view of the stars is an amazing way to relieve stress on the soul. The flush toilets are about 5m away from the Roost and Bunker.
